

Moran: Big 12 Conference Announcement

Great News for Kansas

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Congressman Jerry Moran commented on today's announcement that the Big 12 Conference will remain intact.

"Today's Big 12 announcement is great news for Wildcat and Jayhawk fans across our state. It's also welcome news for the Kansas economy, which will continue to benefit from participating in such a strong Conference. Keeping the Big 12 Conference together was the right decision and I am pleased that that Kansas traditions and rivalries will continue," said Moran.

Last week, the University of Colorado and the University of Nebraska announced their intention to leave the Big 12 Conference. Today, Big 12 Conference Commissioner, Dan Beebe, confirmed 10 universities will remain part of the Conference: University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University, Texas Tech University, Baylor University, Iowa State University, University of Missouri, University of Oklahoma, and Oklahoma State University.
